

Do you know that by law you are responsible for conducting fire risk assessments within your premises?

If you feel your risk assessments are not as detailed as they might be, then why not allow us to assist and give you peace of mind?

What are the benefits to you?

We will: -

- Work with your team to define the hazards and associated risks within your workplace, quantify them and put in control measures to mitigate the risk
- Your insurance premiums could be lowered due to documented procedures with less near misses and accidents occurring
- Your workplace will be safer with less hours will be lost due to absenteeism, stress and low staff moral

Why not give us a call now, to discuss where we can assist you in making your workplace safer ?
